The Marriage Creed

“Be a friend and a partner... Friendship can be a peaceful island, separate and apart, in a world of turmoil and strife. Reflect upon the tranquility of many future years you can share with a true friend and beware of becoming battling enemies under the same roof.”

The Marriage Creed

“Cherish your union... Let no one come between your togetherness, not child, not friend, nor worldly goods. Yet maintain enough separateness to allow each other his or her own unique oneness.”

The Marriage Creed
