“Perseverance is a prime trait of people who are creative and unconventional.
They do not give up easily, or at all.
They have the courage to see things through to fruition.”

“The Reverend Martin Luther King Jr. was a person of perseverance. He knew that civil rights for African-Americans would not come overnight and that it would not come easily. He understood that the battle was bigger than he was and he understood that the price for equality might very well be death.”
