

|  |   |
|--|---|
| www.eagleprep.com “The barbarians are not at the gates. They are inside the gates—and have academic tenure, judicial appointments, government grants, and control of movies, television, and other media.” Thomas Sowell   | www.eagleprep.com “The signs of this degeneration (of American society) are all too plain and all too widespread, from declining educational standards to high crime rates, the degeneration of families and record rates of suicide among young people.” Thomas Sowell   |
| www.eagleprep.com “Able-bodied beggars have become a common sight in American cities from San Francisco to Washington, as well in such foreign capitals as London and Paris.” Thomas Sowell  | www.eagleprep.com “Racial polarization has also become far more common than it was 30 years ago, and segregated living arrangements have been created by college administrators who publicly proclaim their devotion to “diversity” almost hourly.” Thomas Sowell   |
| www.eagleprep.com “Perhaps worst of all, much of the degeneracy of our times is not merely tolerated but celebrated.” Thomas Sowell  | www.eagleprep.com “If they (journalists) insist on being propagandists instead of journalists, the public surely has a right to know that.” Thomas Sowell   |
| www.eagleprep.com “History shows that degeneracy can be turned because it has been done in the past.” Thomas Sowell  | www.eagleprep.com “We have grown so used to crime, violence and other social degeneracy increasing that it may be hard to realize that improvements in all these things have occurred for long periods of time in the past.” Thomas Sowell  |
| www.eagleprep.com “The homicide rate in the United States declined from the time national statistics began to be collected in the early 1930s until the 1960s, when the bright ideas of the anointed began to be applied in the criminal justice system, the schools, and elsewhere in American society and in Western civilization in general.” Thomas Sowell | www.eagleprep.com “Worst of all, the assumptions and social dogmas of the anointed reign supreme from the schools to the colleges and in all the media. What has failed is accepted without question by so-called ‘thinking people’ and what worked is disdained as being out of touch with the times.” Thomas Sowell |