

www.eagleprep.com

“Never indulge in jealousy or envy. Those two destructive emotions will eat you alive.”
Loretta Young

www.eagleprep.com

“While the growing importance of human capital tends to create greater equality between the sexes, it tends to create greater inequality between those people who have been assiduous in acquiring knowledge and mastering skills and those who have not.
Thomas Sowell, APPLIED ECONOMICS
Thinking Beyond Stage One

www.eagleprep.com

“Brainstorming can be one of the most effective ways to look at different professions and to examine your purpose in life. Sit down alone and begin to write down ideas, truths, wishes, hopes dreams, and fears about your future and your life of work. This gives you a starting place to begin making your transition plan.”
Robert Sherfield
The Everything Self-Esteem Book

www.eagleprep.com

“...it doesn't matter how much you earn, so long as you spend less than you bring in-and thereby put aside savings, even pennies, day by day.”
Michael Medved's Oma
Right Turns

www.eagleprep.com

“The independent businessman can only succeed by serving other people giving his customers, his neighbors, something that they want in either goods or services.”
Michael Medved
Right Turns

www.eagleprep.com

“Rather go to bed without dinner than to rise in debt.”
Ben Franklin

www.eagleprep.com

“The aim of all education is, or should be, to teach people to educate themselves.
Arnold J. Toynbee
Surviving the Future

www.eagleprep.com

“There is going to be a race between mass self-education and mass self destruction.”
Arnold J. Toynbee
“Conditions of Survival” Saturday Review 29 August 1964

www.eagleprep.com

“Truth is more profitable than fiction.”
Michael Medved
Right Turns

www.eagleprep.com

“Education should consist of a series of enchantments, each raising the individual to a higher level of awareness, understanding, and kinship with all living things.”
Anonymous